PART V: STUDENT RESPONSE

Please have the student carefully read each resolution and initial the appropriate space indicating which resolution they are choosing:

 Acceptance of Responsibility and Sanction

I understand the violation with which I am charged, accept the faculty member's disposition and sanction, and waive my right to a hearing. I understand that if I have a previous history of academic misconduct it may result in further sanctions being assigned by the Office of Student Conduct.

Note: For graduate or professional students, the Graduate Office or the Dean of Students for Graduate and Professional Students maintains academic records and has the authority to impose additional sanctions.

 Acceptance of Responsibility, Denial of Sanction

I understand the violation with which I am charged and acknowledge that academic misconduct has occurred. However, I do not agree with the sanction and claim my right to a hearing in accordance with the policies established by the Student Code of Rights, Responsibility and Conduct and the school, division, or unit responsible for the course in which the violation allegedly occurred. I understand that if found responsible, and I have a previous history of academic misconduct, it may result in further sanctions being assigned by the Office of Student Conduct.

Note: For graduate or professional students, the Graduate Office or the Dean of Students for Graduate and Professional Students maintains academic records and has the authority to impose additional sanctions.

 Denial of Responsibility

I understand the violation with which I am charged, but do not admit to responsibility and claim my right to a hearing in accordance with the policies established by the Student Code of Rights, Responsibilities and Conduct and the school, division, or unit responsible for the course in which the violation allegedly occurred. I understand the appeal must be submitted in writing to the academic officer of the school, division, or unit within five business days of the conference outlining the faculty member's decision regarding the violation. I understand that if found responsible, and I have a previous history of academic misconduct, it may result in further sanctions being imposed by the Office of Student Conduct. Please refer to page 3 of this document for initial information regarding an appeal.

Part VI: STUDENT RIGHT TO AN APPEAL

A student has the right to appeal any of the following decisions concerning an alleged act of academic misconduct:

1. the faculty member's decision that the student committed the act of misconduct.
2. the faculty member's decision to impose a particular academic sanction.
3. the decision of the person in charge of matters involving academic misconduct or their designee, referred to in this document as the Academic Officer in the School, Unit, or Division in which the offense occurred.
4. the decision of the Dean of Students to impose an additional sanction.
(For information about decisions by the Dean of Students, please see Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities and Conduct.)

Part VII: PROCESS FOR AN APPEAL

Appealing the decision made by a Faculty Member

- a. If the student desires, he/she must initiate an appeal concerning a faculty member's decision by submitting a written request for a hearing before an Appeal Board to the Academic Officer of the School, Unit, or Division within which the alleged offense occurred, within 5 business days (excluding University recognized holidays and breaks) after receiving a written report from the faculty member concerning the decision.
- b. See attached appeal form.
- c. Within 7 business days (excluding University recognized holidays and breaks) after receiving such a written appeal, the Academic Officer should convene an Appeal Board.

Appealing the decision made by an Appeal Board

Only if a documentable procedural error occurred during the Appeal Board process, may the student, within 5 days (excluding University recognized holidays and breaks) of the posting of the Appeal Board's decision, make a final appeal directly to the Dean of the School or their equivalent in a Unit, or Division in which the Board was originally convened. This appeal would only be for a review of the process. The decision reached by one of these Officers or their designee would be final and end the appeals process. In this regard, it is ultimately the responsibility of the student to provide sufficient information and/or documentation to support their case.

Appealing a decision made by the Dean of Students or their designate

An appeal involving a decision by the Dean of Students or their designee may be made to the Dean of Faculties. The appeal process is the same as the one outlined for appealing sanctions imposed by a faculty member. The Dean of Faculties will utilize a Campus Appeal Board composed of faculty and students obtained from a pool nominated by the faculty and student governments.

Note: In cases where the decision made by the Dean of Students is being appealed, the Appeal Board or Hearing Commission is considered to be absolute and final. Upon the Campus Appeal Board's decision, the appeal process is terminated.

Approved by IUPUI Faculty Council, April 17, 2012
